CAFÉ CHURCH

In our Café Church service , Professor Stephen Lea will be helping us to explore the fourth in our series of Burning Questions, 'How can we know God is speaking to us?'

Of course, God 'speaks' to us in many different ways and, our challenge is to ask you to reflect on the question 'How do you hear God speaking to you?'

We'd love you to share your answer to this question in 30 seconds or less at Café Church

If you'd like to write down your answer and send it in beforehand, please email cathy.jerrard@creditonmethodist.org.uk and copy in av-team@creditonmethodist.org.uk

Tea and coffee will be served from 10:15

ACCREDITATION SERVICE

On Sunday 10th November at 4pm, there will be an accreditation service for Cathy Jerrard here at Crediton Methodist Church on the occasion of her being recognised as a Local Preacher. This will be led by Rev Dr Simon Leigh and the Preacher will be Cynthia Dixon.

Everyone is invited to come and join in this event, and stay for tea afterwards. Please keep the date free in your diary.

FOR OUR PRAYERS AT HOME:

God of the past, present and our futures, at this time of the year we particularly remember and commemorate All Saints and All Souls days. Thank you to all those known and unknown to us who have gone before us in the faith and for their faith which has and still inspires us today on our Christian journey. Thank you to those who have been saints to us in our lives, encouraging us by their witness and showing by example your love for us. AMEN

"Let your speech, behaviour, love, faith and purity serve as an example to believers". 1 Timothy 4 v 12
