Dear Friends,

When you are asleep do you find yourself dreaming and when you wake up, do you try and remember what you dreamed about, why you dreamed so vividly, and what caused it. Many years ago, for those who can remember, "Woman's Weekly" published a small brochure with the "meaning of dreams", which in my younger days I found amusing, very interesting, and was told I had to reverse the dream for the interpretation.

Many of us have had day dreams as we were growing up, very often connected to what we would like to become as we looked at our career options. Maybe an airhostess, hair dresser, athlete, doctor, missionary, pilot, a whizz on computers. The list is endless. Some of us achieved our ambitions and dreams, others were not so lucky, but still found fulfilment in what ever they did accomplish.

There are several who had dreams in the Bible. We remember Joseph who had two dreams, which got him into trouble, but was all part of God's plan for the survival of the Israelites Jacob, who dreamt of a ladder going up and down to heaven, and who can forget the vision of the sheet of forbidden food that came down from Heaven as told in acts 11.

The other day I was reading Wycliffe Bible Translators "Words for Life", which tells us stories of how the translation of the Bible in so many different languages is progressing. I was very much struck by "How Augustin's work as a Bible translator is transforming lives today – and is also leaving a legacy for future generations". Augustin has a dream, and he says, "My big dream is to see the Senegalese people, and all people, accept Jesus".

Is your dream to see the people of Crediton accept Jesus, but not only here in Crediton, but also in our Circuit, in Devon, in England, in all parts of the World. In this day and age, people need Jesus more than ever as their Saviour, bringing Christ to the world should be our dream and passion. My prayer is that all people should come to know and accept Christ as their saviour. May I ask, "What is your Prayer". Tina

Shoe Box Sunday

A reminder that the Church for All service Sunday 18 November will be our opportunity to give our gifts to be delivered by the charity Christian Response to Eastern Europe. If you prefer, you can make a donation towards the cost of transportation. The volunteer drivers give their time, but there are fuel, ferry and other associated costs.

CHRISTMAS LUCHEON CLUB Friday 13th December at the Wei Inn

FOR OUR PRAYERS AT HOME:

Heavenly Father, "LEST WE FORGET", we again remember with a mixture of sadness, gratitude and thanks to all those who died for our safety in recent wars. Young lives cut short with their families still grieving to this day. Despite all the horrors of these wars, we have still not learned the lessons from our past. Forgive us!

Lord, today as every day, we continue to pray for peace throughout the world, especially in the Middle East and the Ukraine. Loving Lord our world is small and we continue to feel their pain, suffering and deprivation of our brothers and sisters. We pray for the healing of the nations. "We will remember them". AMEN

*"In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt down, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields"*

In Flanders Fields by John McCrae.
