Dear friends,

Its quite a challenge , when dealing with the change in weather , what to do or where to go on the day off . During the warmer months it's a time to explore beaches or the moors , without having to think about what to wear or watching the weather section on the smartphone .

Where to go , it's a challenge , rather than sit at home watching the TV.

For some years now , whilst residing in Chilsworthy (N. Devon), we discovered a farm shop / restaurant at Lifton Downs ---Strawberry Fields .

It is a family run business , surrounded by great views and easy to access .

It was 5 years ago we discovered Strawberry Fields , and in that time it has grown considerably to allow for families to explore the surrounding fields complete with livestock and also during the spring , the amazing Tulips grown in there 1000's .

We set of , last week , for a spot of lunch (the food is really good , great puddings !) To discover a world of Pumpkins , hundreds of different sized Pumpkins , all shapes and sizes .My husband had his photo taken sitting in a Pumpkin themed backdrop , now shared with our family and friends .

When I was a girl , Pumpkins were not available , so I made do with a large Swede . Cutting of the top and hacking out the middle to achieve enough room to put a stubby bit of candle . I also carved a face , it took me hours but I felt so proud of my lantern and the smell of burning Swede will forever remind me of Guy Fawkes and Fireworks .

So pop down to Lifton , if you can , and enjoy the Pumpkin display along with a cake or two .

Advent beckons , the start of our Advent liturgy, where we enter a time of watching and waiting for the birth of Jesus Christ .

A time of anticipation and expectation .

A season I love above all others , as we wait with baited breath for the joy and hope of Christmas .

With every blessing to you all ,

Reverend Donna.

For Our Prayers at Home:

Loving Lord, at this time we have in mind All Saints and All Souls day. We continue to thank you for all those who have run the race and kept the faith across the centuries to inspire and encourage us today. Thank you for those whose lives of faith have and still challenge, uplift and guide us, ever leading us forward on our personal journey of faith. May we in our turn be an example to others today, encouraging those who travel alongside us. AMEN

"Let your speech, behaviour, love, faith and purity serve as an example to believers". 1 Timothy 4 v 12
