Dear friends,

Some of you will know that, with all the rain at the beginning of the year a long wall between a neighbour and me collapsed. Now, with the drier weather, the rubble is being cleared – 2 skip loads of it – so that rebuilding can begin. All was progressing very well, and arrangements were made to take away the first skip and put another in its place. However, during the replacement process, part of my front wall was accidentally knocked down, too!

The physical walls around me that felt secure have been literally falling to the ground.

This has given me a blessed chance, with God's help, to reflect on and strengthen even more my belief, my faith, and my trust that my hope and strength truly are to be found only in God - Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Travelling through Lent this year, remembering all that Jesus allowed himself to suffer in order to redeem us from the powerful, evil stronghold that sin has over the human race can our hearts be other than overjoyed and thankful in God's amazing love and forgiveness for us.

'In Christ alone, my hope is found – he is my light, my strength, my song; this Cornerstone, this solid Ground, - firm through the fiercest drought and storm. What heights of love, what depths of peace, - when fears are stilled, - when strivings cease! – My Comforter, my All in All, - here in the love of Christ I stand.

StF 351 v 1

FOR OUR PRAYERS AT HOME:

Heavenly Father, as we celebrate and remember Mothers and their special caring and nurturing role, we recognise and bring to you all who care in whatever way where there is a need here and throughout the world. Caring is not always easy and we hold up to you the many and varied difficulties experienced at this this time as a result of famine and war and others actions.

Lord may the whole world learn to love each other respecting differences, learning to live alongside each other in harmony. AMEN

"God has told you what is good; and what does he want of you but to act justly, to delight in sharing kindness, and to walk in humility with your God". Micah 6 v 8
